

Loughborough University Terms and Conditions of Study 2017/18: Changes from 2016 version

Definitions

Clarification that Section 1 applies to students submitting an application for a programme for the 2017/18 academic year, or the 2018/18 academic year if applying for deferred entry (subject to changes up to 30 September 2017).

Clarification that Section 2 applies to students registered on programmes in the 2017/18 academic year.

Section 1

1.2 Your Offer of a Place

Addition of a sentence setting out the expectation that students will be in attendance at the University on the first day of term to start their course.

1.3 Conditional Offers

Addition of word 'Service' after Disclosure and Barring.

Addition of a deadline of 6 September for applicants to postgraduate taught programmes to meet all conditions of their offer.

1.5 Status for Tuition Fee Purposes

Clarification that changes to tuition fee category can only be considered after an offer is accepted if there is a good reason why relevant circumstances were not drawn to our attention or submitted at the time the offer was accepted.

1.6 Change of Circumstances

Inclusion of sentence to explain that the University reserves the right to withdraw an offer if information is revealed that may present a risk to the student, other members of the University or the University as a whole.

Section 2

2.1 Registration

Addition of requirement for students to commit themselves fully to engage with their studies and only seek leave of absence for genuine mitigating circumstances.

2.2 The Student Charter, Student Conduct and Behaviour

Addition of paragraph to explain that the University reserves the right to suspend a student's studies if information is revealed that a student's continued registration may present a risk to the student, other members of the University or the University as a whole, while fitness to study or disciplinary procedures are conducted.

2.6 Tuition Fees and Other Charges

Addition of paragraph to explain that tuition fees for continuing students may rise each academic year by a factor to allow for inflation, and that students will be notified of changes to tuition fees in advance.
